Health Commissioner Emerson has allowed all the moving picture places in New York to be reopened.

Mrs. A. R. Dunn of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilson Darrow of Branch street.

Mrs. Frank Berard and the Misses Donald and Irene Berard have returned from a week's trip to Niagara Falls and vicinity.

Fadden & Fadden and Prior and Newall, vaudeville, teams arrived in town this morning to fill a two days engagement at the Harte Theatre. Adv.

Play Morgan Towsley of Broken Bow, Nebraska, and Clara Jewett Pratt of Williamstown, Mass., were united in marriage Thursday September 28, 1916, at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. P. L. Dow.

The supper which was to have been given at the home of Mrs. E. A. Booth this evening, is to be served at the Methodist church from 5 to 8 p. m. and all who wish to enjoy some of those delicious waffles which Mrs. Booth has been serving several afternoons this week, are cordially invited. Because of the large number of people who had telephoned for reservations it was found necessary to move into larger quarters and where more could be accommodated at once.

NORTH BENNINGTON

Florence Humphries, who opened school Monday at Riverside, is boarding at Loner Sherwoods.

Saturday as Mrs. Leona Sherwood and her mother were driving up the hill past the Thomas Austin farm they saw a half grown fawn near the old house.

ness awaits you now

Say!

If the women folks in general realized the scarcity of desirable Suitings and Coatings—the unprecedented shortage of made up Garments—the inability to supply goods ordered months ago and the positive certainty of still more trying conditions

My!

What a scramble there would be from Maine to California to secure Fall and Winter Apparel while it is procurable at present comparatively slightly advanced prices. Later on in the season—in the immediate future—price will be a secondary condition. To get future supplies at any price is the problem that is worrying every thoughtful merchant just now

Yep!

We've heard all about the false cry of WOLF! WOLF! etc. Yep! Fortunately those pesky critters are extinct in our neighborhood

PAULINE FREDERICK (THE GREAT)

In a picturization of E. Phillips Oppenheim's thrilling story

THE WORLD'S GREAT SNARE

In five parts

Review—

In the role of Myra, the fascinating heroine of E. Phillips Oppenheim's thrilling story, "The World's Great Snare," Pauline Frederick is endowed with numerous opportunities to display the charm, magnetism, and emotional power that have made her one of the foremost favorites of the screen. As a cabaret dancer, who smiles gaily upon the world, but whose heart conceals crushing sorrows and despair, Miss Frederick contributes one of the most powerful and sympathetic characterizations in all fiction. The Famous Players Film Company's production of this famous story possesses all the superb qualities of pictorial and dramatic strength for which this leading producing company is noted.
